

ANACOSTIA JOINS FIGHT TO OBTAIN VOTE FOR DISTRICT

The citizens of Anacostia, through the association representing that community, today entered the fight for suffrage for the District.

Following the regular meeting of the organization last night, resolutions placing the association on record as favoring the right of franchise for local residents were adopted, and Congressman L. C. Dyer of Missouri was thanked for the interest he is taking in the matter.

Charles F. Roberts declared that residents of the District are entitled to vote equally with other American citizens. Dr. James A. Watson, former president of the association, stated that he had favored local suffrage for twenty years. He complimented The Times for its part in bringing the question before the public.

The association also endorsed the plan of the Federation of Citizens' Associations for the election of a Commissioner.

President Charles R. Burr told of the efforts being made by the civic bodies in other sections to secure enclaves in the army. Dr. R. A. Fyles, vice president, stated that during the last month he had been instrumental in inducing twenty young men to enlist.

WOMEN, FEELINGS HURT, URGE SMOKELESS DAYS

Believe Men as Well as Housewives Should Economize.

"Stop planting tobacco and turn the acreage devoted to this crop to grains. Have smokeless days as well as meatless days and wheatless days."

Constant rejoinders to this effect were received by the food administration from women all over the city.

These women object to the constant urging of small economies on their part. They say that they are not the real wasteful and would have the food administration go after the men.

The American housewife, it is most vehemently declared, is not wasteful, as has been openly charged.

HOME DEFENSE RIFLES ORGANIZED BY ELKS

Thirty-four recruits were signed up for the Home Defense Rifles at the patriotic rally held last night at the Washington Lodge of Elks, and a company was organized under the command of Capt. D. R. Nihorn. The company now numbers close to 100 members, and a drive will be made to secure fifty more at an early date.

The meeting was presided over by Captain Nihorn. Judge A. B. Taylor, Col. William P. Egan, Col. M. A. Winter, Capt. Albert Winter, William S. Shelby, and Fred J. Merzhimer addressed the meeting.

To further the interests of the new company a meeting of the Washington Lodge of Elks will be held next Wednesday evening.

WOMAN'S ASSAILANT SOUGHT BY SLEUTHS

Police and detectives today are looking for an unidentified man who attacked and roughly handled Mrs. Frederick Textor, of 1115 Morse street northeast, while she was on her way home at 11:30 o'clock last night.

Mrs. Textor was walking along a dimly lighted section of West Virginia avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets northeast, when the man sprang from behind a tree and seized her by the arms. She screamed loudly when she saw him, and her outcries frightened him away. Owing to the darkness she was unable to tell whether he was white or colored. The highwayman was frightened off so quickly he did not have time to snatch the woman's purse.
